

4-H Canada Scholarship Recipients

The 4-H family is a large one, and we are proud of all of our members. Today, it is with a loud, strong voice that we pass on our collective and most hearty “Congratulations!” to Naomi Best, Emily Turner, Marika Dewar-Norosky, and Ashlyn Pizey; all 2017 Canadian Council Scholarship recipients.

Naomi Best, a ten-year member of the Rivers and District 4-H Beef Club, was awarded a TD 4-H Agriculture Scholarship. Naomi will be attending University of Saskatchewan studying Animal Bioscience.

Emily Turner received a John Deere Canada 4-H Scholarship. Emily comes from the Souris 4-H Challengers and has been a member for nine years. She will attend Olds College to study Agricultural Management.

Marika Dewar-Norosky was honored with two awards; the CIBC Post Secondary and John Deere Canada 4-H Scholarships. Marika has been a 4-H member for ten years with the Newdale 4-H Club and will be continuing her studies towards a Bachelor of Science Degree in Engineering at the University of Manitoba.

Ashlyn Pizey, was awarded a Weston Family 4-H Agricultural Scholarship. Ashlyn is a ten-year member of the Binscarth Home-Ettes. She will be attending the University of Saskatchewan in September and is enrolled in the College of Agriculture and Bioresources and plans to obtain her Agronomy Degree.

These young people have worked hard and these honors are well deserved. We are so proud to see them acknowledged. Well done!
