

Organic and Low-Input Agricultural Systems Field Day and Tradeshow

Swift Current Research and Development Centre
Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada

August 1, 2018

Walker Place

2150 Walker St, Swift Current, SK

- 8:00 am Registration at Walker Place - Tradeshow all day
- 9:00 am Introductions, and travel to South Farm for Field Trials Tour
- 11:45 am Return to Walker Place for lunch, networking and presentations in the afternoon
- 5:00 pm End of field day

Field trials tour includes:

Intercropping and following cash crops, Diversified cropping strategies to improve sustainability of organic production: Cover crop blends and following cash crops, Allelopathy, Tillage timing and intensity, Polycrop mixes for grazing, Phoma bioherbicide, New organic trials and studies starting in 2019

Afternoon presentations :

Mixed grain intercrops, Role of field boundary habitats in agro-ecosystems, Market signals and converting to organic farming, Agronomy and ecology for organic production, Update on SaskOrganics activities, Organic producer panel about on-farm research projects and participatory breeding, Display on organic agriculture in the Prairies.

Tickets: $30.00 (includes lunch, coffee breaks, and 50-page book of proceedings)

To Register: <https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/organic-low-input-agricultural-systems-field-day-tickets-46740297488>

For Sponsorship, Tables & General Inquiries, call: (306) 535-3456

Tours will go on rain or shine, so please come prepared!

