Code of Conduct – Registered Volunteer

This document applies to: Leaders, Board Members, Staff and Host Families

4-H Manitoba endeavours to educate youth and adults for living in a global and ever-changing world. It strives to create environments in which young people are valued, contributing members of their community. As a reputable child-serving organization, 4-H Manitoba has developed the following code of conduct to guide our volunteers. While every volunteer is valued and unique, we come together as an organization in the best interests of children and their families. The safety, rights and well-being of children we serve are at the core of our daily operations. We nurture supportive relationships with children while balancing and encouraging appropriate boundaries. Thank you for making this commitment.

The Manitoba 4-H Council Policy Manual details the rights and responsibilities of registered volunteers. Council staff should be contacted for complete information on involvement in the program. All 4-H volunteers are subject to all of the requirements of the manual. 4-H volunteers are also subject to all other relevant laws and regulations. These standards outline 4-H Manitoba Program expectations of all those who work with children and youth and are represented by this Code of Conduct.

As a positive role model, I will:

- Complete the 4-H Youth Protection Program volunteer screening process in a timely manner; consisting of a Criminal/Vulnerable Sector Check, Child Abuse Registry Check and a name of a character referee.
- Work cooperatively with youth, families, volunteers, 4-H staff and others in a respectful manner.
- Treat others courteously. Be kind, helpful and supportive to 4-H members, adult volunteers, youth leaders, 4-H staff, guests or other program participants including judges and sponsors.
- Make all reasonable efforts to ensure equal access to participation for all youth and adults.
- Provide a safe environment.
- Treat all allegations of abuse/sexual misconduct seriously and report all allegations or suspicions to the appropriate authority.
- Respect the privacy of others.
- Respect facilities used for 4-H activities.
- Exhibit good sportsmanship. By example, help individuals learn to respect and cooperate with others. Teach others to compete with honesty and fair play.
- Be honest, honour my commitments and accept responsibility for my choices.
- Use language that is respectful, polite and kind.
- Wear clothing that is neat, clean and acceptable in appearance as appropriate for 4-H events.
- Take personal responsibility for any interpersonal conflict that may arise, whether with members, parents, guardians, adult volunteers, 4-H staff or other participating adults; demonstrating positive conflict resolution skills to youth members.
- Handle funds and fundraising in an ethical manner. Funds must be expended for 4-H purposes only and must not be kept in a personal bank account. Accurate records must be maintained.
- Accept support and guidance/direction from 4-H staff or volunteers acting on behalf of 4-H
